JARROLD & SONS' LIST.

NOTABLE SIX-SHILLING FICTION.

JUST ISSUED.

BY A POPULAR HUNGARIAN AUTHOR.

ST. PETER'S UMBRELLA.

By KÁLMÁN MIKSZÁTH.

With an Introduction by R. NISBET BAIN, a Photogravure Portrait of the Author, and 3 Illustrations. 6s.

"A fantastic romance, his humour, his skill in the delineation of character, his large knowledge of the Slovak folklore make 'St. Peter's Umbrella' an unusually fascinating story. Throughout it is lively and amusing, and as the plot develops it becomes exciting, while the dénouement is both daring and original. Mikszáth is a close observer and a true humorist, while a notable and genuine literary quality distinguishes all his work."—Pall Mall Gazette.

BY DR. MAURUS JÓKAI.

THE DAY OF WRATH.

By MAURUS JÓKAI.

Translated from the Hungarian by R. NISBET BAIN. With a new Photogravure Portrait of Dr. Jókai. 6s.

"The Day of Wrath" was written in the darkest hour of Maurus Jókai's life—when his beloved Hungary lay gagged and bleeding under the heel of Austria, and he himself little better than a proscribed rebel under police surveillance—and the outcome of it all was this lurid, terrible, but withal most thrilling story. In it we shall find some of the author's most original comic types, and many episodes of irresistible humour.

A STIRRING HISTORICAL ROMANCE OF VIRGINIA.

VIVIAN OF VIRGINIA.

Being the Memoirs of our First Rebellion by John Vivian, of Middle Plantation, Virginia.

By HULBERT FULLER.

With 10 charming Illustrations by Frank T. Merrill. 6s.

A stirring and accurate romance of the time of the famous Bacon Rebellion. The subject-matter deals with the life-like characters, Governor Berkeley, the Governor by Divine Right; his niece, Zoe Langdon; Master Bacon, Sergeant Vivian, and others enrolled in the archives of the maiden colony. The story abounds in exciting incidents and well-told conversations.

CURTIS YORKE'S NEW NOVEL.

CARPATHIA KNOX.

Author of "Hush," "Dudley," "That Little Girl," "His Heart to Win," etc. With a fine Photogravure Portrait of the Author. 6s.

For several winters Curtis Yorke has resided in Spain, and this experience has been turned to account with the author's usual skill. Written in a brisk, fresh style, the story treats of an idyllic saunter through Northern Spain by a quartette composed of a delightful old lady, a girl, and two young men. The manners and customs of Asturias being faithfully and amusingly presented.

BY MARY H. NORRIS.

The Gray House of the Quarries.

By MARY H. NORRIS.

With Etched Frontispiece by Edmund H. Garrett. 6s.

The author introduces us to a new type in the literary field—viz., the Dutch-American people, being REMBRANDT-HUBENS PICTURES on fresh canvas.

FERGUS HUME'S EXCITING NEW NOVEL.

A WOMAN'S BURDEN.

By FERGUS HUME,

Author of "The Mystery of a Hansom Cab," &c. 6s.

A NEW POLISH NOVEL.

DISTAFF.

By MARYA RODZIEWICZ,

Author of "Anima Vili," &c. Translated by COUNT S. C. DE SOISSONS. With specially engraved Portrait of the Author. 6s.

JOHN MACKIE'S STIRRING NOVEL.

THE MAN WHO FORGOT.

Author of "The Prodigal's Brother," "Sinner's Twin," &c. 6s.

BESIDES THE ABOVE LIST OF SIX-SHILLING NOVELS, several new Three-and-Sixpenny Novels and a large number of specially attractive books for Young People will shortly be published. A complete Illustrated Catalogue will be sent on receipt of a Post Card.

"A LANDMARK IN LUNACY."

"Mr. Chesterton's book possesses originality in its most dangerous form..... in the author's turn of mind. Mr. Chesterton's elaborately frantic pages. His drawings are much superior to anything usually associated with this sort of work, and should go far towards winning him recognition from a very large public. Anyone with a feeling for line might study some of these vigorous and perfectly simple compositions—I say it in all seriousness—for hours." Speaker.

"Tolling, rejoicing, sorrowing,

So I my life conduct

Each morning see some task begun,

Each evening see it chucked,"—p. 90.

MR. WM. HEINEMANN'S NEW BOOKS.

Dedicated by special permission to H.R.H. the Princess of Wales.

HANS ANDERSEN'S FAIRY TALES.

A New Translation from the Danish Original by H. L. BRÆKSTAD. With an Introduction by EDMUND GOSSE. With 240 Wood Engravings by HANS TEGNER. 2 vols., demy 4to. [Oct. 19.]

"The services of the greatest living Danish artist have been enlisted to present pictorially the dainty fancies of the poet of fairyland. Hans Tegner has so entirely absorbed the spirit of Andersen's work that the same sequence of thought and the same fantasies inspire his pencil as they inspired Andersen's pen. It will be difficult in future to think of Andersen's stories unaccompanied by these designs."

CHARACTERS OF ROMANCE.

A Portfolio of 16 Pastels reproduced in Colours.

By WILLIAM NICHOLSON.

£2 2s. net.

[Oct. 19.]

"Mr. Nicholson, who has already won fame as a painter of portraits of men and women of the day, here depicts some of the celebrities of Fiction, and in this gallery will be found such favourites as Don Quixote, Tony Weller, Miss Havisham, Mulvaney, and John Silver."

He tells the story of his fascinating voyage with a briskness and good humour which make his book excellent reading."

THE PRINCE DE LIGNE. His Memoirs, Letters, and Miscellaneous Papers. 2 vols., £3 2s. net.

The Times—"A real addition to the books on the eighteenth century which everybody ought to read. The two volumes are full of capital first-hand accounts of campaigns, full, also, of shrewd appreciations, political and literary. They deserve to be read, and to be added to the books that one keeps."

THE PAGEANTRY of LIFE. By Charles Whibley.

With a Frontispiece. 1 vol., 7s. 6d.

The Academy—"Mr. Whibley has done his work with art, with humour, and with a cheerful spirit. The clouds roll away; whiffs of a delight in life that, alas! is not too common now, blow across the pages as we read."

ESSAYS of JOHN DRYDEN. Selected and Edited by W. P. KER, M.A. 3 vols., crown 8vo, price 10s. 6d.

Spectator.—"We cannot too highly applaud Prof. Ker's admirable volumes. Here at last the work of Dryden is set forth with learning, taste, and restraint. Prof. Ker is a perfect editor, because while he knows all that may be known of his author, he recognises that he himself plays but a secondary part. Nevertheless, a good editor is as rare as a good translator, and Dryden in finding the best has found no more than his desert."

THE RIDDLE OF THE UNIVERSE

At the CLOSE of the NINETEENTH CENTURY.

By PROFESSOR ERNST HAECKEL (OF JENA).

This great work, already famous on the Continent, contains the ripened conclusions based on the writer's life-long and well-known scientific researches. It is a unique exposition, both from the philosophic and the historical point of view, of the evolutionary Monism of modern science.

"About the energy, the vigour, and the conviction with which Professor Haeckel presses his views there is as little doubt as there is of his immense attainments and the authority with which he speaks on all questions of natural science."—Daily Chronicle.

MR. CONAN DOYLE'S HISTORY OF THE BOER WAR.

ON OCTOBER 23rd.—With Maps, large post 8vo, 7s. 6d.

THE GREAT BOER WAR

By A. CONAN DOYLE,

AUTHOR OF "THE WHITE COMPANY," "RODNEY STONE," "THE GREEN FLAG, AND OTHER STORIES OF WAR AND SPORT," &c.

Mr. Conan Doyle was present in South Africa during a considerable portion of the war. He saw something of the operations with his own eyes, and he had exceptional opportunities of meeting and cross-examining officers and men who had taken part in those events. He combines considerable knowledge of military affairs with a fearless impartiality. Mr. Conan Doyle's history is the first attempt to gather the events of this drama into a single complete one-volume narrative.

THE VENETIAN REPUBLIC.
Its Rise, its Growth, and its Fall,
421.1797.

By W. CAREW HAZLITT.
Mr. Carew Hazlitt's volumes are the only complete history in English of the once great and famous Venetian Republic. In 1860 the author brought out a book which was recognised as the standard work on the subject, but in the forty years which have since elapsed, such vast stores of additional information have been made accessible, that the present book is, to a large extent, not only rewritten, but rearranged, while the narrative is carried down to the close of the independent government, and a series of chapters illustrating social institutions has been introduced.

ON SANITARY AND OTHER MATTERS.

By GEORGE S. KEITH, M.D., LL.D., F.R.C.P.E., Author of "A Plea for a Simpler Life," "Fads of an Old Physician," &c.

This volume, as the title indicates, treats of subjects varying a somewhat in kind, but all pointing out errors on sanitary or economic matters which seriously affect the well-being of the community, and which, but for the strong resisting power of conventionalism, might be easily remedied, and with much advantage to all. The last three papers go mainly to confirm what the author has already brought forward as to the evils resulting from the present system of over-feeding, over-stimulation, and drugging, both in health and disease.
